1. [ ] Bill Woodruff, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, called and said he was concerned about articles he had read in the New York Times indicating that the position of Executive Director-Comptroller is being abolished. We talked about this at some length and it was agreed we would get together early next week and arrange for him to be briefed on the situation. See Memorandum for the Record. 25X1

2. [ ] Received a call from [ ] who was interested in knowing whether the Director is scheduled to testify on the Hill. He went on to say their Plans people were preparing some material on the training of military personnel for Frank Slatinshek, House Armed Services Committee staff, and understood there was a possibility of the Committee holding hearings in the future. I told him I was not aware of specific plans for hearings but in response to a request from Slatinshek for Representative Nedzi, we had prepared and submitted to the Committee some material on our personnel recruitment and training program. [ ] said he understood Nedzi's interest had been sparked by his recent travels to Europe and his conversations with people at various places, specifically some of the attaches. 25X1

3. [ ] John Unumb called and said in a recent social meeting with Ed Braswell, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, the subject of a column by Ben Welles in the Christian Science Monitor on the reasons for Richard Helms' departure was discussed. Braswell asked Unumb if we could get a copy of the article for him. A copy was dropped off for Braswell today. 25X1

5. [REDACTED] Larry Turk, Administrative Assistant to Representative Ogden Reid (D., N.Y.), called to say the Congressman is out of town today but plans to have a meeting with Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meir in New York on Monday. He added their office had received a call from a man who identified himself as Stewart Henry of the Secret Service and Henry had asked for details about people Mr. Reid might plan to bring with him. Turk has some question about Henry's bona fides and asked if we could assist them in verifying his association with Secret Service. I told Turk that in view of the recent clamor over Agency involvement in internal U.S. matters, I would prefer to have someone from the Washington office of the Secret Service contact him on this and inform him about Henry. This was arranged through [REDACTED] Security.

6. [REDACTED] Gene Tollefson, on the staff of Senator Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.), called to say some constituents have learned about an old OSS film entitled "The White Horse" which was made in 1952 and they are interested in seeing this film if it is available. Tollefson asked if I would check to see if it was classified and, if not, whether it could be made available for them.
